OPENING RECEPTION
FRIDAY OCTOBER 28, 2005 7- 9 PM

Outrageous Look WINDOWS PROJECT is proud to announce the premier of "WARNIN' Y'ALL", an installation by Peer Hansen. In this piece Hansen employs resin casts of his carvings in clay, sculpted icons and reconstructed furniture. The work refers on its varied surfaces to maps, legends, and medallions and data. The artist creates a topographical survey of his own inner symbolism, dealing with themes of heritage, violence, and American identity.

Peer Hansen is a native of Danbury, Connecticut. He earned a B.F.A. in Sculpting from Boston University in 1987, and moved to New York to pursue music and painting.

He has had two solo exhibitions at Limbo in New York. He has taken part in all group shows at Outrageous Look, and has worked extensively as a medallion and toy sculptor.

His first solo exhibition at Outrageous Look is scheduled for June 2006. He lives and works in Brooklyn, New York.
